Invitation, Map and Directions sent by Paul Hamilton

A Memorial Service for five Confederate graves in the Iron Bluff Cemetery in Lone Star, Texas today May 10, 2014. Judge Maddox, president of the Iron Bluff Cemetery Association and the council were very pleased with the way the service was carried out. Feedback was all good. The Cemetery Association furnished BBQ for the Color Guard.

Participating camps for the Memorial Service were: Red Diamond Camp, J.M."Matt" Barton Camp, Gen. Walter P Lane Camp, Gen. John Gregg Camp Upshur Patriot Camp, UDC Arkansas Division and OCR Texas Division.

Thank you, Esther Linton for the pictures. Will everyone please keep our photographer Albert Colvin and his wife in your prayers? His wife is very ill.

The Lone Star Color Guard had the honor of assisting in the funeral service of WWII Veteran Kenneth Earl Moon held Monday, May 12, 2014 at the First Assembly of God Church in Gladewater, Texas. Chaplain Terrell (Bro. Laney) of the Gen John Gregg Camp and Pastor of the church officiated the service.

Daughter of Mr. Moon ask if the SCV could be a part of the service along with the Navy and the Marines. Jerry, a Marine is the grandson of Mr. Moon and he presented the flag to his grandmother. On a short notice some of the Color Guard was able to come and we were able to fulfill the family's request. Archie Hass (Ottor) played Amazing Grace. Flag was being folded by Navy Honor Guard.

Lone Star Honor Guard fired three volleys in honor of Mr. Moon. 1st Sgt Paul Hamilton played taps
